MAYOR MARIE TRAINER DECLARES AN END TO STATE OF EMERGENCY IN HALDIMAND COUNTY

The Mayor officially lifted today the State of Emergency that was invoked due to the power outage of May 22, 2006.

Hydro One has restored the Caledonia Transformer Station to its normal operating condition and is continuing final repairs. The County thanks Hydro One for their diligent efforts in restoring the power supply to the citizens of our community.

Also, Haldimand County very much appreciates the conservation measures that the citizens have undertaken and requests citizens to continue to conserve power to the greatest extent possible.

Authorized by, Bill Pearce, CAO
